Gold Rushes To Record High Third-Party Grading Shuffle

The new year couldn't have gotten off to a better start for the rare coin market as Gold slammed through its all-time high of $850, surging more than $25 per ounce in early frenzied trading, January 2, 2008. One day after history was made, apparently not satisfied to rest on her laurels, Gold powered ahead even further, trading at nearly $870 before closing out at $866. Silver stepped well over the $15 barrier, and Platinum's strong showing procured an impressive $1,550 per ounce closing quote. This New Year's blitz targeting the precious metals is in part a response to the continued wars in Iraq and Afghanistan as well as anxiety in Pakistan. Of course, there are many additional components to consider before arriving at any long-term conclusions. Certainly, higher precious metal prices are sure to induce a sharp increase in the number of inquiries from the public wanting to get in on this new wave of metal mania. The American Eagle family, and other bullion coins, should be immediate benefactors. We also expect to see significant action among the common date Gold Type group that includes the very popular $20 Liberty and Saint-Gaudens coins. As we mentioned in our final 2007 issue, the premiums for common date Double Eagles have soared during the golden sortie, and we suspect this trend to continue as supplies become strained. The increases in metals may also provide astute dealers and collectors an opportunity to buy the slightly better date Gold coins at near run-of-the-mill Type levels as many of these dates are just lumped into the common date status when Gold is powering forward like she is now.

Even at this breakneck speed, dealers will gleefully take today's market over the doldrums anytime. Activity, up or down, is the key to making money in any market, and those dealers who put in the long hours will reap handsome rewards. The strength of Gold is giving added confidence to a coin market that has already been on a sustained adrenaline rush. Further enhanced are dealers' inventories, increasing in step with the metals during this upward trek. This bodes well for those attending the fast approaching Florida United Numismatists Show, January 10-13, and the Orlando auctions by Superior, Stack's, Bowers & Merena and Heritage, beginning January 5. Expectations are high, and should be met or exceeded, as long as the Golden Express doesn t jump the track in the Sunshine State.

The sight-unseen trolley is on cruise control as we kick off 2008. Yet market makers and shakers are still flexing some muscle in an attempt to secure needed material before the "FUN" begins next week. Gold Commems reveal the overall positive trend for these low mintage treasures as the popular Pan-Pac Dollars push $100 higher, powering to $1,400 Bid for PCGS MS65 specimens. Gold Type, not surprisingly, is on fire, causing an early January thaw. Take a look as rare in high grade Gold Type such as $10 Libs without Motto careen some 10% higher as PCGS MS64 coins claim a blind offer of $22K. PCGS MS63 examples are ahead, too, by over 9%. No Mottos continue to be heard from as the proud Half Eagle variants find PCGS MS65s rising to $26K. $20 High Reliefs are being chased as well, as PCGS representatives move up in Very Choice and better with the former rising over 7%. Though strength prevails in the Spot Silver sector, Silver Dollars—both Morgan & Peace—are relatively quiet as a few exchange hands at auction for slight reductions. Type delivers a strong player, as the tough to find properly graded Shield Nickels With Rays ride a $500 bump to $4,500 for examples graded MS66 by PCGS. ANACS and ICG Walkers are on the move, with a mixed lot from the '30s on combining for a solid showing: 22 are catapulting ahead by double digits. Changes are currently taking place within a few of the third-party grading services. ANACS of Austin, TX has been sold as of December 21, 2007 by Anderson Press Inc., to Driving Force, LLC of Colorado. Driving Force is owned by James Taylor, and ANACS has been relocated to Englewood, CO. PCI, the Photo Certified Coin Institute of Chattanooga, TN is scheduled to be sold by sealed Bid auction being conducted by Gravitt Auction. All Bids must be received by January 16, at 12:00 PM, along with a $5,000 cashier's check. The successful buyer will need to pay the balance by January 23, along with a 10 percent buyer's fee. The sale will include all of PCI's tangible and intangible items such as the PCI name, registered servicemark, website, 800 number, safes and coin encapsulating equipment.

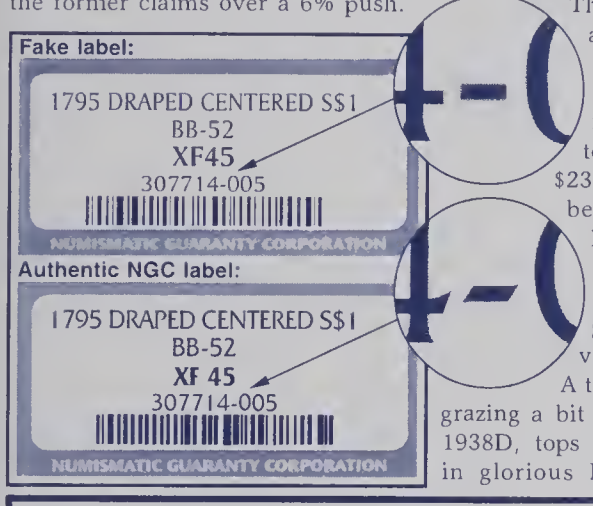
Early Gold On Fire
Heated Market Comfortable In Florida

The Florida United Numismatists convention and auctions are in full swing as many dealers and hobbyists take flight from cold and snowbound regions. Here they are greeted by heated optimism in the rare coin market which is only tempered by some lingering economic related concerns. Still, the business of buying and selling rare coins is taking center stage in the Sunshine State where many of the elite numismatic offerings have buyers swarming and jockeying for position. Competition is, naturally, herculean as many enthusiasts use this venue to sell or add to their holdings. We don't intend to beat a dead horse with the prevailing Gold Spot action, yet as long as this proud stallion continues to gallop to higher levels, the immediate and long-term ramifications to the rare coin circle are enormous.

Sight-unseen traders have most probably left their Bids on auto pilot as they canvass the hot bourse in Orlando. Yet more than a smattering of diehards have been burning the midnight oil in an attempt to get some business done while they are away from their respective home bases. Silver Commems still have a case of the winter blues as the Sesquicentennial in NGC MS64 and Maryland grading PCGS MS63 each have developed a bit of frostbite as they both slide back due to auction indifference. Combating this run down the slalom, we find the tougher 1921 Alabama 2x2 perking up in NGC MS61-62 as the former claims over a 6% push.



There is a definite boost taking place among Silver coins as the other white metal is closing over $16 per ounce. Morgans continue to respond as generic MS64s notch up to $45, MS65s top $115 and the MS66s climb to $235. Peace Dollars reveal a trio of better dates on the move led by the PCGS MS64 1924S step up the ladder to $800. A few other commoners are inching up as well, yet those generics in MS61-MS63 seem to be veritable bargains at current Bid. A trio of later-date Buffalo Nickels are grazing a bit higher as the popular final entry, 1938D, tops $150 courtesy of a 15% advance in glorious NGC MS67. Dealers know that collectors, new and old, have been scouring the bourse for buttery yellow coins. Now as Gold Spot ($892) attempts to blaze through the next major barrier of $900, Gold Type remains blistering hot. Cautious buyers seek volumes of low to mid grade Eagles and Double Eagles to satisfy the cravings of this continuing voracious onslaught. If Gold Type is blazing, Early Gold Type is boiling over, as dealers chase a host of PCGS slabs with absolutely astounding double digit sight-unseen Bids. To flush out the rare MS65 $10 Draped Bust Large Eagle, a colossal $50K advance is detonating the action to $210K. Remember, boys and girls, these Bids are sight-unseen, although with only 12 graded as such by PCGS, veteran Bidders have probably "sight" seen most, if not all of them. Percentage-wise, the popular Classic Head Half Eagles in MS64 are leading this awe aspiring enterprise, topping an amazing 82%, claiming $14K.

In reaction to an increasing presence of counterfeit NGC holders appearing on eBay, the Numismatic Guaranty Corporation has announced its plans to issue a new slab which will be significantly more difficult to replicate. The fake holders most frequently seen include counterfeit Trade, Bust and Flowing Hair Dollars. Regarding the label, the counterfeits use information copied from real slabs, and therefore the certification information will match the NGC database. Fortunately, these bogus labels are rather easy to identify visually. For example, the dashes used on the impostors are straight and rectangular, while the dashes on the authentic labels have angled ends. Also, the replicas have several misspellings within the PNG logo on the reverse hologram sticker, giving them away quite obviously.

The January 2008 Orlando Rarities Sale by Bowers and Merena realized $4.3 million January 8 in Florida. A few of the many highlights from this sale are listed herein. Together with the Superior and Stack's Orlando sales, nearly $14 million has changed hands at public auction in only four days prior to the FUN shindig. Heritage's host signature auction has completed 3 sessions as we go to press, and has already tallied a tidy $7 million.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

Fine Print. Variety and error attribution is an additional $5/coin and will slow down the turnaround time. Nothing in this offer precludes or supersedes the terms and conditions on the ICG submission form. Offer only applies to paid submissions. Customers are responsible for all shipping/insurance and handling charges.

COLLECTORS AND DEALERS REGISTER WITH ICG TO SUBMIT COINS!

Sign-up today and receive a certificate for 5 FREE coin grades (when submitting an additional 5 coins at ICG's regular 15-Day service) and a Submission Kit. All this for only $15 and you'll receive a $15 credit towards your first order. (So essentially it's FREE!)

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

P/L Dollars may be semi-reflective, with less reflectivity than the deep-mirror Prooflikes. Bids for P/L's are usually much lower than for DMPL's, but command some premium over non-P/L strikes.

Early January Auctions Gavel $103 Million
CAC Coins Command Premium

Wow, a mere 16 days in the books for 2008, and we have already been privy to a mind boggling $103 million hammered home in numismatic auctions. At an average of $6.4 million per day to start off January, the market is more than running at full throttle. Of course, results like this are not to be expected everyday, yet on the heels of an impressive Orlando outing, the outlook is for continued heat to radiate in the rare coin arena. At the outset of the new year, the somewhat softer economy was thought to be a determent for the attendance at the inaugural 2008 Florida gala. Yet with the precious metals on fire—Gold blowing past $900—the casual interests of neophytes as well as the advanced focus of enthusiasts propelled a virtual piranha like attack on the well-packed bourse. As expected, the assault on various public auctions was equally intense as dealers and collectors duked it out, in some cases for million dollar prizes.

The inclusion of a significant number of CAC stickered slabs in recent auctions may have resulted in an increase in the number of Bidders (especially those less experienced who wanted to be certain of getting a good coin), in turn helping to increase prices realized. Perhaps not so coincidentally, we have observed a marked surge in the coins that have been selling in the 6 figure range. Many well-informed dealers have told us time and time again that big money is still waiting on the sidelines to reel in some top numismatic trophies, and the advent of the CAC service has certainly made for some easier sales to that newer breed of collector/investor demanding extra assurance and insurance. Sight-unseen Bids for CAC stickered slabs are now being posted for select areas of the market, primarily Dollars and Saints. See the chart at right which shows a clear interest in paying a premium for coins that can be traded with all the ease of a sight-unseen transaction, and all the benefit of a sight-seen one.

Auctions continue to provide the most opportunity and excitement by featuring rarities and better quality examples that everyone so desperately needs today. Not surprisingly, the prices being realized at these public sales also depict a market that fully understands rarity, quality and the true cost for top-notch coins. We have been witnessing a huge increase in the number of $50,000 plus rare coin transactions taking place at public and private treatise. It seems like only yesterday when an individual rare coin selling for $100,000 was a major numismatic news maker, taking the spotlight from all national media outlets and being the envy of veteran collectors. That tier has definitely been expanding during this sustained bull market, perhaps now ten-fold meaning, in order to be the toast of the town, a million dollar transaction is necessary. Serious buyers including collectors and dealers, are certainly more comfortable spending five-, six and even seven-figures for select rarities than ever before. The deluge of new money aggressively pouring into the coin market is nothing short of amazing. With stocks falling, inflation growing worldwide and an extremely soft real estate market in place, it's no wonder investors are gravitating towards the precious metals and rare coins with widening enthusiasm.

There is also a great need for average quality coins in third-party holders, and these are being fought for in the sight-unseen arena; after all, not every transaction is going to be 6 figures. Silver's flurry has Morgan Dollars on the move again as gains by as much as 8% are tackling all the generics across the grading spectrum. MS65s push to $121 and MS66s roll to $250. Peace Dollars are given a chance to be heard as MS65s from both PCGS and NGC share parity on the Bidding bandwagon at $118. As always when dealers are strapped for cash, especially now as some massive auction bills are coming due Silver Commems seem to be the most available sacrificial targets, and a few are obliging due to weak auctions sales However, it's the Gold Commems that are taking the biggest hits. A trio of these low mintage jewels surrender double digits with the 1916 McKinley taking a nearly 17% decline, as PCGS MS67 examples roll back to $7,500 after an auction assassination. Several key date Full Banded Mercs are also assisting to remedy the cash crunch, swinging back a bit due to slightly subpar auction results The Type market retains it resiliency, though, as buyers are not anxious to back down in the least. Although Gold Spot has fallen back off its record high perch above $900 as profit taking set in, most analysts agree that the bull market in the yellow metal is definitely intact. This blip certainly hasn't hurt the Gold Type sector as demand for all that glitters is driving common Saints to $900 Bid for MS61s.

Stack's has concluded its trio of mid January auctions that featured the Kroisos collection Jan 14 and Americana Sale on the 15-16 in New York City. The amazing Kroisos Sale of Ancient and World Coins realized nearly $22 million while the Americana Sale trumpeted a solid $6.3 million.

How to Receive the Largest Check for Your Coins and Currency: Get Them to Dale Larsen at Spectrum!

Spectrum is the largest full-service numismatic company in the world. We have many full-time buyers (that most dealers have employees!). That's why so many dealers, collectors, investors, heirs, attorneys, and estate administrators depend on Spectrum when selling all kinds of coins and currency. They trust Spectrum to deliver the highest possible price, accompanied by fast, courteous service.

We buy thousands of coins and notes every week, items with values from under $5 to over $1 million. Spectrum buys individual coins and notes, partial and complete collections, accumulations, hoards, rarities, Territorials, Colonials, Large and Small Notes, National Currency, even errors!

And unlike so many of our "competitors," who are only interested in your most valuable coins and/or notes, Spectrum buys it all, and pays top dollar!

Dale Larsen, Spectrum's Senior Buyer, has helped tens of thousands of coin and currency owners get top market prices for their collectibles. Whether you want to sell a single coin or note, or a lifetime accumulation, there are four main ways to deliver your coins and currency to Dale:

#1. Deliver Them by Mail. There is no safer way to deliver valuable coins or currency to Dale than Registered, Insured mail. (Did you know the Hope Diamond was delivered to the Smithsonian this way?) Using the United States Postal Service's Registered, Insured Mail option is preferred by the vast majority of men and women who sell to Spectrum. It's convenient and 100% safe. Call Dale toll-free today (888-828-2646) to learn how the USPS will safely and quickly deliver your valuables to Spectrum.

#2. Deliver Them to Our Offices in Person. What could be easier and faster than driving your valuables to our Irvine, California, offices and driving away a short time later with Spectrum's market-topping check? All we ask is that you arrange for an appointment with Dale, so he can give your coins and currency the attention they deserve. And provide the security you deserve.

#3. Deliver Them at a Show or Convention. Today's sellers often prefer to meet and discuss their collectibles with Dale at a secure coin show near their home. That's why Dale travels to dozens of the larger local, regional, and national coin shows and conventions every year. Dale recommends a toll-free phone call well before the convention to be sure he can schedule sufficient time to meet you, review your coins and currency, and make a top-dollar offer.

#4. Dale Visits You. No part of Dale's week is more enjoyable than a visit to a seller's home, office, or bank. He flies and drives thousands of miles every month to personally meet collectors, investors, dealers, attorneys, and heirs. More than 95% of these meetings conclude with Dale writing a sizeable check, then taking possession of the coins and/or currency. Naturally, meetings like this can only take place by appointment due to the security arrangements that must be made.

Meet Dale Larsen, Spectrum's Senior Buyer. Dale brings decades of experience as a collector and buyer to his job. Thousands of coin and currency owners have discovered how easy, enjoyable, and profitable it is to sell their coins and/or currency to Dale. When you're ready to sell, and you want a BIG check from a 100% reliable source, call Dale Larsen Toll-Free at 888-828-2646.

Coin Market Weathers Financial Storm
Internet Auctions Raise The Bar

Although the world financial markets may be in turmoil, the numismatic arena still has its house in order. It has certainly been an explosive start to the 2008 campaign, and as the yellow metal proudly grapples to its new digs, a swell of excited newcomers is prompting many an inquiry, keeping dealers hopping and burning the midnight oil. In addition to Gold's rebound and continued impressive levels, Silver is going strong as well, at over $16.35, and Platinum has reached yet another milestone this week, up $54 today, and currently trading over $1,600. Last issue, we elaborated on the powerful wave of public auctions that has swept through the ever-changing numismatic landscape, generating millions of dollars in sales. This report, some of the well established internet coin auctions are drawing ever increasing participation and prices realized. To illustrate, this week's Sunday and Monday auctions from the innovator of the concept, Teletrade, combined for over a million dollars when buyer's fees were included. We are not talking about castoffs from the plastic wasteland and other dreck that these outlets had been stigmatized with way back when. On the contrary, many of these coins would stand up as highlights from the best public auction sales. As an example: a PCGS MS64 1804 Small 8 Half Eagle flew to a new home at $69,457, and a superb 1895 Liberty Eagle graded PCGS PR64 DCAM claimed $47,057. Many other quality coins also generated well in excess of four and five figures. David Lawrence and Heritage have also been conducting biweekly internet auctions for some time, and others are getting onboard too. The David Lawrence Galleries January 21 internet auction included the sale of an 1889CC Morgan Dollar graded PCGS MS63PL for $40,825. Also, a popular 1916 Standing Liberty Quarter was a triumph as a PCGS MS63FH traveled down the internet highway at $19,550. In between major shows and other public offerings, these point and click "mouse sales" are generating substantial results and filling the fresh coin void. After all, everyone is on the same page, chasing after those desirable and rare, early Type coins along with key dates from virtually all series. The affluent and knowledgeable collectors are still targeting any quality early material they can find. These collectors know such coins are in finite supply and are genuinely rare today, and they will be just as rare and in demand tomorrow.

As many dealers prep for a Midwest Winter Sale hosted by Scotsman, February 8th in St. Louis, they will also be finalizing plans and strategies for a West Coast swing the following week. The atmosphere is sure to be heated as dealers jockey for those premium pieces, chasing down anything that will play on their customers' wish lists. Yet after a whirlwind of sales in early January, dealers know that the auction piper is standing at their door with his hand out. So it's not all that surprising to see sacrificing of the marginal material that has been bogging down inventories or has just fallen off the hit parade's sight-unseen venues. Right now, ample cash reserves are a necessity, and not only to pay the auction bills. In order to keep the businesses running on all cylinders and to have the wherewithal to compete and capture any deals that present themselves, solid credit is an absolute must. When the public at large and those pseudo collectors are hearing that precious metals are going through the roof, there is bound to be a quick roundup and excavation of any coins that are Silver or Gold to take to their local dealers.

Cash in hand allows for some quick purchases and keeps the gravy train rolling. To help facilitate this, the usual contingent is obliging. Silver Commems once again are in the mix as the beautifully designed and truly American, Oregon Trail Memorial delivers a pair of Denver entries with dual digit losses. The 1937 is sliding by as much as 16% in PCGS MS66 after falling off the wagon at auction. The Classic Gold Commem ensemble also sports a few drifting back as the tougher 1905 Lewis & Clark gives up some territory to $1,200 in NGC MS62 due to auction malaise. Morgan and Peace Dollars are still holding onto the majority of their hard fought gains, although a few commoners have eased back a tad after the hammer fell short. Although action has been on the light side this report, the sight-unseen market is still churning out for those dealers that need to buy or sell certified material. Since the first of the year, thousands of sight-unseen trades have taken place, and millions of dollars have changed hands. Sight-unseen strength is clear, especially when considering the CCDn Coin Market Index, which has been over 900 every week since October 12, 2007, a peak not seen in 17 years. Mint State Type hasn't relinquished its vigorous following, as the tough Capped Bust Halves with Reeded Edge top $3K in NGC MS64. Gold Type has been the scene of ongoing volatility, and as the golden yo-yo settles on the plus side of $906 as we go to press, volumes of Saints are on the upswing in MS62-MS65.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, auctions and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher asserts that due diligence; presently there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase or that it was actually purchased at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication we track the lowest sales-related prices in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols. "w" – Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (week old); "m" – Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (month old); "t" – Trade during the most recent month; "lm" – Lowest asking price appearing the month "lt" Trade appearing last month; "ot" Trade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" – auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit on a sight basis.

U.S. MINT PRESIDENTIAL $1 COIN COVER
2007 P & D GEORGE WASHINGTON
MS 65 FIRST DAY OF MINTAGE
South Carolina
UNITED STATES MINT OFFICIAL AMERICAN PRESIDENCY $1 COIN COVER SERIES

NGC and U.S. Mint Coin Covers

The Perfect Companions

Just another way our rare commitment is redefining the hobby.

NGC Certifies Official U.S. Mint Covers in Original Issue Holders

NGC grades and encapsulates coins enclosed in their original covers, preserving their historical significance and pedigree while receiving the advantages of an NGC-certified grade.

The entire cover, with coins still enclosed, is sealed in a semi-rigid clear plastic case with detailed label, describing attribution information, the coins' pedigrees, and NGC grades. The case developed for this service is made from the same high-quality, inert materials that collectors have come to expect from NGC, and it is thoroughly sealed to guard against environmental hazards and other contaminants.

Eligible covers include:

- 50 State Quarters Official Commemorative Coin Cover
- Westward Journey Nickel Series Official Commemorative Coin Cover
- Sacagawea Dollar United States Mint Official Commemorative Coin Cover
- United States Mint Official American Presidency $1 Coin Cover

NGC is proud to be an innovator and market leader creating new products and services that benefit the collector and numismatic marketplace. For more information and submission instructions, visit NGCcoin.com.

CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

Metals Fuel Blazing Sight-Unseen Market
1870S Seated Dollar Pulls Down $1.3 Million

February kicks off with what dealers hope will be another super month. It certainly doesn't get much better than this: metals racing to record levels and rare coins attaining prices rarely seen. Many contributing factors and world events continue to come into play. The Fed attempting to stem the tide of a possible recession lowered interest rates for the second time in a month, this time .5%, leaving the federal funds rate at 3%. This ongoing credit squeeze has investors scouting for a more advantageous vehicle for their cash. Many have justifiably found rare coins to be an attractive outlet. Of course, Gold bounding ahead to over $930 and Silver on the $17 threshold are making this option even more appetizing.

Many exuberant collectors now entering the billowing numismatic marketplace have found today's astronomical price levels there forcing them to target coins by Type instead of seeking every date and Mint. Certainly, the chances of another Eliasberg or Pittman-like collection emerging today are slim. Speaking of Eliasberg, a classic rarity which was once the pride of his holdings, the famed 1870S Liberty Seated Dollar graded AU53 by PCGS has just sold for $1.3 million. John Albanese bought the treasure from Stanford Coins & Bullion of Houston, on January 28. The famed American rarity is one of 11 known examples. Amazingly, individual rarities and Superb early Type coins are driving this market through the outer stratosphere.

As the expanded opportunity to do business is now heading West, with St. Louis first and then the Long Beach experience mid month, dealers' need for coins outweighs the availability of local material. Under such circumstances, purchases, sight-unseen, come in handy to replenish malnourished inventories. This week's sight-unseen market is resplendent with action. It's a pronounced case of "Hi Ho Silver!" as Morgan madness sets in. This report, over 150 plus signs are lighting up the scarcer, popular cartwheels punctuated with gains by as much as 23%. Peace Dollars are perhaps more of an amazement as the short series is electrified with 100 gains targeting the gamut of players. Commoners like the 1922 and 1923 are inching up to a $16 Bid for MS61s, which is still a veritable bargain as Silver Spot flirts with $17. The semi-key 1924S plows ahead with over a 23% advance as NGC MS64 examples claim a $950 Bid. The tougher 1926S catapults over 22% as both services enjoy a solid and deserved $110 escalation for those designated MS65. Not surprising, ANACS and ICG slabs are also getting a push. Leading this sortie is the 1923D graded MS66 by ANACS, leaving the previous $750 Bid in the dust, blitzing to $1,000. Proof Gold Type is showing strength as Matte Proof Indians in PCGS PR67 are rising 29% to a $40K Bid. Although these are blind Bids, with only 22 specimens extant the buyers have probably scouted most if not all of the tribe already. Mint State Gold Type is healthy as well, with a dozen grading MS65 and better thundering ahead with double digit escalations. Leading this golden assault are the Type II $20 Libs with a 50% increase in the next to impossible PCGS MS67 column. Mint State Type is on everyone's must-have lists as PCGS MS66 Liberty Seated Half Dimes with Stars roar to $1,600 on an astounding 52% charge.

Expectations for February continue to grow as dealers prepare to view the thousands of auction lots that have already been scheduled. Superior and Goldberg will conduct Pre-Long Beach sales in Beverly Hills, California. The action will get underway February 10-13 with the Pre-Long Beach Sale by Ira & Larry Goldberg. Superior will host their own Pre-Long Beach Elite Coin Auction February 11-12. Heritage is next, February 13-16, with the official Long Beach Auction.

Auction Safari Ahead
PQ Coins In The Crosshairs

There is no doubt that attractive coins that are well struck and of premium quality for the grade have been increasing virtually non-stop throughout this phenomenal bull market run. It is not only that these choice examples have been escalating but the sheer demand has become quite colossal. Markets that act in such a frenzied atmosphere are usually ripe for some profit taking. Yet no one is really sure when the other shoe will drop as this tenacious demand is being fueled by individuals with serious money earmarked to obtain even more of this material in 2008. Many of the truly rare and quality examples that are so desperately desired are also necessarily few in number. One of the plausible explanations for these ongoing success stories is just that: the finite number of quality and rare examples extant. Accordingly, this limiting factor tends to buoy prices, at times exponentially as a slim fixed supply is being hunted by an ever accelerating demand.

When will the amazingly strong prices being paid for these coins be considered just too much? Market analysts and numismatic pundits ponder this question continually to offer proper guidance to their customer base. Most of these rare coins were originally bought by collectors whose sole mission was to enjoy them and the feelings of pleasure and accomplishment upon completion of a series. Naturally some were astutely aware of investment benefits as well but that wasn't their primary objective. In turn many of these collections were ultimately sold by their heirs and custodians, not themselves. Today's buyers of these great rare coins may not have the same mindset of the earlier pioneer collectors. They do understand that it takes a lot of money to buy select rarities and the cost of non-interest bearing coins over time needs to be considered. Consequently many of today's buyers may choose to increase the turnover of their collections to a greater degree than those "old school" seasoned numismatists of years ago. That's why it is so important for owners and potential buyers of rare coins to stay on top of today's rapidly changing market dynamics.

Opportunities to secure some top-end delights should present themselves at the highly anticipated Long Beach Expo that begins with dealer set-up February 13. Yet as dealers maintain their arduous grind prior to the West Coast stint the sight-unseen cavalcade beckons. Striving to augment areas of inventories that have dried-up or just to freshen stale offerings, the sight-unseen market is a welcome oasis. Interestingly and perhaps the harbinger of a growing trend, classic Silver Commems are not the sacrificial host, that is at least not to the degree that we have been accustomed to over the last several months. Indeed only a few civil declines are noted and none are worth writing home about. As Spot Silver maintains a robust posturing Morgan Dollars continue to flourish with action. Certainly not to the degree of last week's blitz yet two dozen, most of which are commoners in MS65 are inching ever higher up the Bidding ladder. Several of these generic Gems are now fetching a $122 blind buy. Peace Dollars are seeing a few of the hoi polloi in that series mustering modest escalation as tough to come by NGC MS66 examples claim $465. Again in either series there is not any degree of wholesale sell-off and bargains even on the internet auction venues are very limited. Speaking of internet auctions, an extremely attractive NGC AU58 1916 Double Die Buffalo Nickel caused quite a stir as this rare member of the herd realized a tidy $51,923 during David Lawrence's Thursday Sale. Mercs are receiving some modest activity as several late date entries graded NGC MS67FB are on the move as the 1941D elevates nearly 18%. Type continues to amaze and few sellers are willing to let much of this prime real estate slip through the cracks as this material will be amongst the most sought-after on the Long Beach bourse. Draped Bust Small Eagle Dimes are homing in on little action as NGC MS62s top $8K. As a matter of reference there are only 22 graded as such by NGC and 18 are for the inaugural 1796 delivery. Proof Type is also in great demand at present levels yet at auction, an 1880 3¢ Nickel graded PCGS PR66 resplendent with a CAC sticker fell through the cracks claiming $600 when the retail gavel dropped. This is an example of money left on the table as sight-unseen buyers will instantly pay a blind Bid of $670 for any PCGS/NGC example, sans sticker and regardless of what the coin looks like. Although the golden jet hasn't really let up on the throttle, buyers are still searching for quantities of Double Eagles as Type 3 Libs and Saints adjust a bit in MS61-MS65. The real eye opener is for Early Gold Type as well-heeled buyers are putting up tremendous Bid increases to capture these early federal treasures. The rare 1795-98 Small Eagle Half Eagles are flying away with the most phenomenal advances in AU58-MS62 as PCGS AU58 examples surge over 100% now commanding $45K. The action should really heat up when Pre-Long Beach sales commence February 10th in Beverly Hills, California. Opportunities should abound as the auction safari will continue right through the following week as the Signature Long Beach Expo Auction by Heritage concludes February 16th.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers and are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder In these cases a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN albeit on a sight basis

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

P/L Dollars may be semi-reflective, with less reflectivity than the deep-mirror Prooflikes. Bids for P/L's are usually much lower than for DMPL's, but command some premium over non-P/L strikes.

Pre-Long Beach Auctions Deliver $12 Million Peace Dollars And Walkers Jump

Dealers have entered a veritable bechive of activity as the Long Beach Expo has commenced with metal prices as strong as ever. The only problem that dealers are facing under this intense mantle is securing enough quality coins to facilitate the boatload of pending sales. Dealers with inventory and checkbooks in hand are ready for business at just about anytime, these days. Whether in airport lounges, hotel rooms, restaurants, or even convention restrooms, anything is fair game. Most dealers we caught up to are ecstatic with the present market. A well-known major dealer from the East Coast said everything is great, with generics, better dates and Gold all flying from his inventory. Another big-time player advised us that while things are hot, cash is getting a bit tight as all the Gold and Silver bullion pouring into the Mom and Pop shops is causing a bit of a strain on finances.

As with any business venture, those willing to put in long hours on the bourse or researching and viewing thousands of auction lots will inevitably succeed. Dealers have been besieged with requests from established clients hoping the West Coast junket will conjure up some neglected want list items. A wave of new enthusiastic buyers is making their entry into the rare coin arena, eager to get a feel for what all the commotion is about. Certainly, as Platinum flirts with $2,000 per ounce, Gold remains above $900 and Silver stays over $17, the natural carryover to numismatic inquiries is going to continue at a fever pitch. It's absolutely amazing as dealers have many persnickety customers that have put together sizable numismatic portfolios over the last few years and are chomping at the bit for more. Yet as the coin conga line grows and grows, those seeking rarities or Type coins of unquestionable quality and pedigree face a daunting task. Unfortunately, the demand for this type of material and other key dates today has nearly eclipsed the supply wagons.

The sight-unseen market may be able to come to the rescue for some that were not so fortunate at the highly combative auction venues. Perhaps not all that surprisingly, Classic Silver Commems are running on low self-esteem again as dealers let these pieces of Americana drift a bit lower. Yet as Spot Silver remains white hot, those staple Morgan and Peace Dollars are being traded in substantial quantities. This report we observe that Peace Dollars are the noise makers, as the popular 1st year 1921 issue is plowing ahead by as much as 33% with PCGS MS65s claiming a sight-unseen Bid of $1,800. The tougher to find, properly graded PCGS MS66 examples take a $1,000 blind Bid increase to $5K. A few of the commoners are also nudging a bit higher in Gem. One well-known and aggressive buyer of PCGS material is chasing Capped Bust Dimes, Quarters and Halves in MS65 through MS67. These advances are substantial as eight are on the receiving end of double digit percentage hikes. Leading the parade are Large Capped Bust Quarters taking home a $30K sight-unseen offer on the heels of a 33% increase. Walkers are stepping it up a notch, too, as members of the hot short-set in MS65 and better are storming ahead by over 30%. Generic Gem Walkers are now claiming a solid $120 offer as 2 dozen rally on double digit hikes. Gold Type is running full-bore as PCGS MS65 $5 Libs sans Motto are bumping up a thousand bucks, now at $27K. PCGS has graded a mere 18 in Gem, nearly half of which are dated 1861.

The pre-Long Beach auctions are history, with strong prices realized for select rare coins. Superior's Elite auction realized more than $1.9 million. The sale featured a special collection of Proof Capped Bust and Liberty Seated Dimes. Ira & Larry Goldberg rounded out the action, hammering home nearly $10 million. We have listed many highlights herein.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services determined through careful study of market activity, including the most nationally reported sight unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers are strictly the responsibility of the dealers and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Precious Metals Continue Remarkable Run
Baltimore Expo On Deck

Now that the California auctions and big show have brought the curtain down, dealers will get only a short respite to unload their wares and account for their sales before the Baltimore show and auctions. Of course, their first order of business is to catch up on waiting want lists at home and strategize for the next excursion. There should also be some time to reel in some new business as the precious metals are a raging inferno directing many an inquiry to either major dealers or the smaller Mom and Pop shops. Platinum enjoys trading in record territory, while Gold set a new record as well, now at over $950 as we go to press. Silver is trading at an astounding $18 per ounce, a price not seen in decades that has many customers digging out junk Silver for cash or trade. The rare coin market is firing on all cylinders with demand for select material exploding. Continued weakness in the real estate and stock markets is pushing the average Joe's funds towards alternative opportunities, such as precious metals and rare coins.

All of this bullishness can only bode well for the sight-unseen market. Dealers looking to offload some generic coins can do so rather easily knowing that the numismatic bull is still waiting to be fed. Moreover, current conditions allow dealers to sell off some of those also-rans and receive an excellent return, piling up some cash in the process. The speed and convenience of this sight-unseen market is perfectly suited for those looking to buy and sell many of these common coins available in the slab jungle. Silver Commems are tried and true combatants in this game, and many are offering up some much needed cash. As you can seen by the multiple minus signs, several sold at auction recently for reduced levels. In some cases, they've gone for less than current wholesale Bids. Be sure to take note of this fact as you view the Market columns this week. Many dealers are predicting a Phoenix-like revival for Silver Commems. Such a rise from the ashes seems likely to the pundits, since they believe these coins may have hit rock bottom, and have nowhere to go but up. Walkers are on the move, as nearly forty MS66 and MS67 players from the 30's and 40's are flashing double digit advances. Large Size Capped Bust Quarters in PCGS MS63 and MS64 race ahead by as much 53% as the former flags down a $3,750 offer. On a dollar basis, the big Type winner are Liberty Seated Dollars With Motto as PCGS MS66 examples steam ahead to $50K under the kick start of a $9K advance. The true rarity here speaks for itself as only a baker's dozen have warranted this classification with only 2 raising the bar to MS67. Gold Type is on fire thanks to Spot as several high-grade, better PCGS issues are up, as are generic Twenties, with increases across-the-board.

It has been discovered that the word official was misspelled as offical on a small number of NGC slabs displaying their new hologram sticker. The updated hologram features NGC's new informational website address and the problem has since been corrected. NGC has announced that as of January 2008, the star designation has been expanded to include coins graded MS63/PR63 and lower, including Circulated material. The starred coins, which have been given the designation for having exceptional eye appeal, will receive a score premium in their registry sets. CAC will soon be launching their own registry set program, and those PCGS/NGC slabs with a gold CAC sticker will be recognized as being a full grade higher. Only 18 coins have won the coveted gold sticker out of the roughly 15,000 coins submitted so far. An additional benefit to the gold sticker is that it will allow collectors to keep their "fatties" and "rattlers" in their original, nostalgic holders while getting all the benefits of a newly slabbed, higher graded coin. CAC plans to have its own registry set program and sight-unseen trading network up and running by this summer.

We have listed some of the highlights from upcoming auctions, which include Stack's, being held February 26-27, and Bowers & Merena, to take place February 28-March 1, both in Baltimore.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks and key coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" – Lowest asking price during the *w*eek prior to publication (week old); "m" – Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (*m*onth old); "t" – *T*rade during the most recent month; "lm" – Lowest asking price appearing *l*ast *m*onth; "lt" *T*rade appearing *l*ast month; "ot" *T*rade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" – auction older than 1 month

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN albeit, on a sight basis.

The choice for the Millennia Collection was NGC

"NGC is the most knowledgeable in the field."

— Ira Goldberg, President, Co-Owner
Ira and Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles

The Millennia Collection features over 1,000 of the most important world coins from ancient times through the early 20th Century. Many predictions suggest that when this collection sells in 2008, it will become the most valuable collection of world coins ever sold.

We are proud to say that the entire Millennia Collection has been certified by Numismatic Guaranty Corporation. This important collection deserves nothing less than the rarest commitment.

Ira Goldberg, of Ira and Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles, who will sell the Millennia Collection on May 24-28, 2008, stated, "NGC is the most knowledgeable in the field. We chose them for their accurate, unbiased, third-party opinion of grade, and also for the protection that their superior holders give to these coins."

All of the most important collections to come to market in recent years have been authenticated and graded by NGC, including the Eliasberg World Gold, Reiver, and Damon collections.

For the world's greatest coins, the clear choice is NGC.

Dollars Surge On Silver Spike Baltimore Auctions In Full Swing

Last week, and over the last several installments, we discussed the importance and the dominate influence that the precious metals have dictated in the rare coin market and throughout its unparalleled multi-year bull run. It has actually been quite an astonishing ride as the number of new coin collectors coming onboard this bandwagon seems to have increased in step with the metals' phenomenal escalation. Of course, a virtually never ending supply of bullion related offerings has kept some of the newly indoctrinated happy. And without question, the US Mint's participation, with redesigned Jefferson Nickels, State Quarters, Sacagawea & Presidential Dollars, and the upcoming Lincoln Cent Circulated Commemorative program, has also contributed to the current uprising. Yet as each new true numismatist is spawned, many dealers are facing a double edged sword. Certainly it's great to have customers lined up with more waiting in the wings, but this furious coin market is akin to when a gaggle of uninvited family show up for Sunday dinner; it's great to see them, but what are you going to feed them? Famished buyers continue to canvass for numismatic provisions as a larger band of ravenous enthusiasts is chasing after an ever shrinking supply. The net result has borne witness to a tremendous surge in price for many in the higher echelon, especially those that are problem free and radiate eye appealing pizzazz. Type coins embracing these characteristics, along with a worthy pedigree, have waiting homes in the higher rent districts as there is apparently no housing shortage in Coin Town. The stark realization is that advanced hobbyists are not willing to sell for a quick profit as alternative investment vehicles are not as promising today.

Those attending the Baltimore Coin and Currency Convention and the Stack's and Bowers and Merena auctions will face a challenge as they roam the bourse and battle one another at auction. A similar condition will follow them out west as they change venues to Phoenix to attend the American Numismatic Association's National Money Show, March 7-9. Heritage will offer some relief from the winter drought as they host the official ANA auction, March 6-7. For those not making the trek, the sight-unseen venue is a welcome oasis. From the comfort of home or office, dealers are just a click away from generating cash or gobbling up necessary inventory. Already in 2008, millions of dollars and thousands of coins have changed hands on the electronic trading highway. At a per average trade of nearly $6,200 on one major network, this is an excellent outlet to augment languishing inventories.

Silver Commems, though certainly available, are not being quite as hospitable, even as their prolonged run through the numismatic abyss has eased. Only a handful are drifting back due to lower Asking prices. However, the perhaps still under valued Washington Carver Sets of 1951 in MS64 are inching up to a $90 offer. Silver Dollars are raging under a sea of buy orders, as Spot Silver flirts with $20 per ounce. Morgans viewed as common are on the rise once again as plus signs follow the ranks from MS64-MS67. Those grading MS65 now have a blind Bid of $127, offering value for even the worst possible examples. While still quite a distance from the sight-unseen level of $510 from June 2, 1989, today's Bid is still quite strong, indicating a very healthy market. Peace Dollars are also on the move, as MS61s claim a $16 sight-unseen Bid. This is especially appetizing when you take into consideration that the melt value for these slabs is over $15. More money has been exchanged this week for sight-unseen Silver Dollars in the CCE Big Generic Market than any other week this year. In fact, at $67,200, this represents the highest total for the year by a large margin, and more than the last three weeks combined. Most Type material remains in serious demand as numerous buyers are lined up with offers. Gold Type is still a whirlwind of action as buyers put out the call for volumes of Eagles and Double Eagles as they nest at yet higher levels. This makes sense considering that Gold Spot continues to set new record highs, currently at $970. As if there were need for positive reinforcement of the exceptional strength and diversity of demand in this flourishing market, Stack's Rich Ulrich Collection Auction, Feb 26-27 in Baltimore, realized a tidy $8 million. We have listed a few of the highlights.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Buyers Hope To Avoid Drought In Phoenix
Gold And Silver Show Their Mettle

This has traditionally been the time of year when things are a little hectic in numismatic circles; yet the whirlwind that is this rare coin market is taking even some seasoned dealers and collectors by surprise. To say that 2008 is off to a good start would be an emphatic understatement. There is literally no rest for the weary buyer as this is the season when one major show and series of auctions are so tightly bundled that there is virtually no let up for regrouping or strategizing for the next. The FUN, Long Beach, and Baltimore shows and related auctions are testament and history to this, yet their legacy more than lingers on.

Dealers of course are ecstatic with all aspects of the voracious bull with a heartfelt salute to precious metals' performance. But boarding this tandem express comes at a price. While riding this euphoric high, dealers are finding that cash and credit reserves are not able to stretch as far as they used to. After all, buying a 10-coin mixed lot of Double Eagles that walks through the door is going to cash out at around $10K as compared to about $6,500 just a year ago. Certainly everyone wants more rapid turnaround on items sent out on memo, but this is especially true when anything bullion related is on the hook. Dealers are much more cautious with 90% bags as well. What used to be OK if it was in the neighborhood isn't flying with Spot Silver knocking on the door of the $21 club. If a bag isn't going to net out 715 ounces, no one wants to have to make up 4 or 5 ozs on a short bag as that will be pulling about $100 from your trade.

In addition to the bullion related, dealers are thrilled for the rare coin pandemonium as those five and six figure treasures are selling as rapidly as popcorn to moviegoers. Yet, dealers are all too aware that it's tough to sell what you don't have. This has been the lament at the major shows' bourses. The highly saleable material bringing in more than top dollar just can't be found to any great degree, and when it is discovered, a battle royale to claim the prize ensues. Buyers are anxious to secure virtually anything that is PQ, or has a Star or a CAC sticker on its PCGS or NGC slab. Certainly, given the present state of coin deprivation, many will be taking a long hard look at those that just miss that coveted PQ moniker.

Between the major venue shows, buyers also have a sea of internet-only auctions to navigate through each week. There is usually something within everyone's budget in these sales, and more are including a solid spicing of CAC material. David Lawrence Rare Coins' Monday night auction, concluded on March 3, was such an event, with over a third of the 147 lots bearing the green sticker. Total price realized including buyer's premium reached nearly $1.1 million. This total was helped along quite a bit by the auction's headliner: the famed 1802 Half Dime, Pittman specimen, graded NGC AU50, catapulting to $345,000. All said and done, over two dozen lots brought 5-figure money, of which 11 were CAC certified. While this auction contained no PCI slabs, those in the future might. John Feigenbaum, president of DLRC, recently announced his purchase of PCI, as well as his plans to move the grading service from Georgia to his home base of Virginia. In addition to tightening grading standards, in his press release, he also states, "We will make an active two-way market in the new PCI slabs."

For those dealers not as choosy, or just looking to cast off some stale inventory, the sight-unseen market is usually a handy way to raise the much needed cash to buy hot material. CCE now facilitates this process even further as they have added those coins graded by ICG into the generic trading fold as of March 5. Moreover, the number of Big Market players has nearly doubled recently. As is often the case, Silver Commems are tied to the whipping post once again. At least those participating in the mêlée are fewer than usual, and the decline in Bids from lower auction sales is minor for both PCGS and NGC material. As a matter of fact, a call for Booker T. Washington and Washington Carver Sets of 1951 is being heard as ANACS and ICG representatives are bounding ahead by as much as 25%. With Spot Silver sailing ahead on a brisk breeze, buyers are willing to take Mint State Silver Dollars in virtually any flavor of slab as evidenced by the push for generic and better dated Morgans presently residing in ANACS and ICG holders. Peace Dollars are also heard from as the scarcer 1923S drives higher in both PCGS and NGC holders with the latter posting a 13% advance. Mint State Type is still under extreme pressure, and very few bargains have slipped through the auction cracks. Gold Type is facing phenomenal demand, and as the yellow metal flirts with the millennium mark, a new wave of expectations and advances greets the golden gang.

All this bullish activity bodes well for the beginning of the American Numismatic Association's National Money Show and Heritage auction in Phoenix. Hoping for an oasis in the desert, expectations are high but also realistic as dealers know that the price tag for many of the coins they seek will most assuredly be steep.

Early Gold On Fire
Market Strength Virtually Untouchable

It is safe to say that the rare coin market is still firmly in the bullish column following a successful Phoenix ANA Money Show. Not surprisingly, Early Gold of all denominations continues to be blistering hot following the desert affair. Actually, early coinage of all metals and denominations is performing at full bore with high premiums being dolled out for any quality treasures that can be conjured up. If reinforcement is needed that this stuff is scarce just ask the band of bleary-eyed dealers and collectors coming up empty handed after traipsing up and down the bourse. Dealers have customers waiting in the wings to buy many of these issues but with demand quickly outstripping the meager supply, the price tag has nowhere else to go but higher. Today's major buying force is coming from those knowledgeable collectors demanding superior coins that are of premium quality for the grade. Nonetheless, while most of this well-schooled new breed of numismatist are willing to spend the big bucks that it takes to reel in some of these prizes, they won't part with unlimited funds if they believe the new higher price doesn't represent a good value. Keep in mind that rare coins are not a necessity to the masses such as gas, food or health care. Yet, when it comes to parting with one's disposable income, considering that interest rates are so low, rare coins continue to be an extremely popular choice to park that extra cash. Perhaps even more so now that financial chaos is brewing, the flight towards quality is in full bloom and the number of coins that are affected by this demand is under serious upward Bidding bias. The trick is unearthing quality and rare problem-free material. Although some dealers are concerned about the specter of some long overdue profit taking, the dwindling number of special coins facing the extraordinary demand is still managing to put short term enrichment on the back burner.

With ubiquitous auction bills and show costs mounting up fast, a definite strain on one's liquidity is becoming a reality for some. Consequently, many dealers will be turning to the sight-unseen venue for immediate relief. Increasing demand for a greater array of just average coins is benefiting dealers by allowing them to trade replaceable material for stronger levels with all of the benefits and ease of a sight-unseen transaction. Even though Classic Silver Commems have a solid following many are still being led down the road to oblivion. The good news is that some noble buyers are coming to their rescue as the popular Lafayette Dollar mounts a $2,400 offer in MS64 and the Hudson floats upstream to claim $1,125 in the same grade. Silver is still white hot and prudent buyers have put the call out for mounds of Morgans. Generics grading MS63, MS65 and MS66 are each getting a push, with sight-unseen Bids of $37, $130 and $265 respectively. Peace Dollars are participating too as sundry MS63s move up a notch to $26. Cogent activity taking place within the precious metals sector continues to bait the feeding frenzy within the numismatic arena. Gold Spot has surpassed the magical and record setting $1,000 per ounce mark in futures trading before settling back a bit while Silver remains in impressive territory, now near $21. Over $11.3 million in common date Silver Dollars and Double Eagles has been traded sight-unseen thru CCE's generic big market in just over four months.

Mint State Type is still amazingly strong and Proof Type reveals some action targeting PCGS Three Centers, Shield and Liberty Nickels. As we alluded to earlier in this report, Early Gold Type was on fire in the desert and now we see that well known East coast and West coast buyers having not been able to secure enough have pulled out all the stops. Draped, Capped and Classic designs are all rocketing by as much as the 68% jump seen honing in on AU58 Small Capped Head Half Eagles, soaring to $42K. The leader on the dollar board goes to the earlier designed Draped Bust Small Eagle Fives as they take flight with a $60K advance to $225K for PCGS examples graded MS64. With a population of only 6 and all bearing the inaugural 1795 date, this buyer is most likely aware of this flock's quality. As demand intensifies and precious metals escalate, although not infallible, it appears as of right now that this market is virtually untouchable.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN albeit, on a sight basis

Preserving your modern art

NCS introduces Modern Tier

Professional conservation from NCS reduces the ill effects of improper storage or exposure to environmental contaminants — substantially improving a coin's visual appeal. And now we've created Modern Tier, a service designed especially for modern coins.

Submit any uncertified coin struck from 1970 to present for $22.50. This one flat fee includes conservation from NCS expert technicians and NGC certification. Following conservation, your coins are transferred to NGC, where they are graded and encapsulated in the NGC holder, the ultimate protection for long-term preservation.*

Industry-leading conservation, certification and preservation starts at just $22.50 per coin.

* NGC does not grade coins with detrimental surface conditions. Coins not eligible for NGC grading will receive NCS details grading and encapsulation. Not genuine coins or coins with altered dates or mintmarks will be returned uncertified.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

P/L Dollars may be semi-reflective, with less reflectivity than the deep-mirror Prooflikes. Bids for P/L's are usually much lower than for DMPL's, but command some premium over non-P/L strikes.

Metals Mayhem Continues
Sight-Unseen Buyers Spring For Material

Spring is here, but the proverbial lion that roared to usher in this wild month has yet to relinquish its hold on the rare coin market. To be sure the recent actions by the Federal Reserve to help prop up an ever volatile sub prime mortgage debacle has eased the immediate jitters of further financial fallout. Yet with the Federal lending rate at its lowest level in more than 4 years, the non-interest bearing commodities such as rare coins and other collectable options are becoming more attractive when compared to the slight pittance that the conventional investments yield. This is why the rare coin market continues to embrace an ever expanding arena full of spectators that want to be a part of the heated action. Prior to making big purchases, many of these potential new customers are schooling themselves with the wide array of information available on population, pedigree, and the ever tightening grading scale.

While those coins with a CAC sticker are certainly getting a great deal of attention lately, sight-unseen Bids also continue to rise for generic material of lesser quality. Increased demand for common Silver Dollars and Mint State Gold Type is continuing to drive prices higher in the sight-unseen market. Several dealers need quantities of these coins to fill orders and they could care less about what they actually look like. This activity clearly demonstrates how diminished some inventories have become. Even with the set-back in precious metals, demand remains strong and dealers are simply responding. Nobody knows how long this will all last, but for the time being many are enjoying the upswing for common date examples.

A chance to feed starving inventories and address lingering want lists is perhaps just around the corner as April is no fool, appearing to be well stocked with several shows on the docket. Dealers will need to be ready as the Santa Clara Coin, Stamp and Collectibles Expo in California is scheduled for April 10-13. Superior will conduct the Santa Clara Elite Coin Auction April 10. Next, The Chicago Rarities Sale on April 15 by Bowers & Merena offers a fine appetizer to the Central States Numismatic Society convention being held in Rosemont, Illinois April 16-19. Dealers anticipate strong demand and participation by a huge collector base in the surrounding metropolitan Chicago area. Heritage will host their auction April 16-19 at the convention.

Until April springs around, many will try their hand at the ever popular electronic trading networks, an invaluable tool to drum up some sales or to acquire some inventory in an instant. Silver Commems always appear to be the sacrificial host to some wholesale madness. Although in this report a handful are offsetting the slide as the scarcer 1949 Booker T. Washington PDS Set makes a move in PCGS MS65, and the tougher to find Washington-Carver Type grading NGC MS66 tops a $150 blind offer. Some considerable profit taking in the metals sector has done little if anything to stop the Silver Dollar express as they are still steam rolling along. Once again, aggressive buyers are taking Bids to even higher terrain for those generic Morgans grading MS63 and better. Gems reel in $133, and the tougher MS66s drive to $270. Peace Dollars are encoring their last cameo appearance as MS63 hoi polloi inch up the Bidding ladder to $27. Walkers are also getting some strong legs as a bevy from the short-set reveals 11 players chasing after double digit gains. Leading the pack is the solid 33% bounce for the 1945S NGC MS66 representative commanding $300. The popular key to this abbreviated ensemble, 1941S, places second as a nearly 22% advance puts PCGS MS65s at $700. Another hearty buyer says, "load me up" as his hankering is towards MS67s of the NGC persuasion at a solid $650. Gold Type is also under careful watch as a significant sell-off in the Gold bullion sector brought Spot down $125 from its intraday trading record of $1,034 set March 18. In spite of this adjustment, modest advances are embracing a host of Mint State Gold Type issues. Perhaps the most beautiful coin within the American numismatic landscape—the $20 Saint-Gaudens High Relief—is feeling the most heat. These elegant wonders are vexing to buyers as Choice and better examples shine with MS67s plowing ahead to $125K on the heels of as much as a 39% escalation. Look for action here to continue as dealers may very well want to buy up these beauties in anticipation of promotional sales springing from a new coin on the way. The United States Mint plans to recreate the Ultra-High Relief Saint-Gaudens in .9999 Gold with the 2009 date appearing in Roman Numerals. As of now, this volatile month doesn't appear to have any intentions of going out like a lamb.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

Blustery Coin Market Still In Forecast
Stack's Sale Stakes Claim to $4.3 Million

The volatile metal markets seem to have rebounded after some substantial profit taking led to a brief slalom run. As we go to press, Gold is trading firmly in the $950 range, and Silver has muscled its way back to a solid $18.50. Platinum is back as well, with a strong $2050 Spot. Irrespective of the current financial upheavals, today's rare coin market continues to cater to and captivate collectors. Of course dealers are anxious to welcome the new hobbyists with open arms, yet the ongoing freeze on locating fresh material is finding most in a quandary. The demand is still overwhelmingly ahead of supply as dealers valiantly attempt to reload their dwindling stockpile. Locating new fresh material is quite challenging. Most dealers can be found tackling the regular show circuit with other big name companies and auctions on a regular basis. Yet most will attest the bourse at key shows is still a frustrating madhouse as buyers are all chasing after coins of similar quality. Of course, such intense competition forces Bids higher. Buyers are looking for premium quality examples at each grade step and are willing to dole out strong money to secure the same for themselves and their customers. So perhaps due to self-preservation or just to get away from the main stream, the same dealers can be found hitting the not so prime time shows vying with collectors in small town America in hopes of locating some treasures off the beaten path.

As we touched on previously, the weekly internet auctions held by many dealers are becoming an increasingly active hotbed between major venues. Also, over the last year, the frequency of high-quality 5 and 6 figure marquee items making appearances on the internet only sales is becoming more common. Some solid rarities are definitely making the rounds here. A few recent March examples include: A 1793 Half Cent graded NGC AU58 adorned with a CAC sticker realizing $41,400, the desirable 1873CC No Arrows Liberty Seated Half, a solid NGC MS63, reeling in $36,977 or the popular 1917S Obverse Walking Liberty Half grading PCGS MS65 running home with $18,400. All told, some highly collectable coins are rearing their heads. As a matter of record through March 26, the biweekly Heritage, David Lawrence and triweekly Teletrade online only sessions have generated nearly $6.5 million this month alone. Again, these are not feature auction sales by this trio of well respected numismatic firms. It wasn't that long ago when this impressive tally would have been the total proceeds from all major auction venues for an entire year. Speaking of major sales, Stack's diverse and desirable Dominic Gaziano & Papyrus Way collections realized $4.3 million during the one day auction March 26 in New York City. We have listed a few of the many tantalizing certified highlights.

Stack's			Price Realized
1792 Half Disme	NGC	VF35	$74,750
1797 50¢ Draped Bust Sm Eagle	NGC	F15	$53,475
1808 $2½ Capped Bust	PCGS	AU50	$126,500
1879 $4 Flowing Hair Stella, Cam	NGC	PR66	$250,125
1802/1 $5 Capped Bust	PCGS	MS62	$20,700
1915 $5 Indian Head	PCGS	PR66	$86,250
1915 $5 Indian Head	PCGS	PR65	$74,750
1885 $20 Liberty, UCam	NGC	PR65	$138,000
1915 $20 Saint-Gaudens	PCGS	PR64	$80,500
1915-S $50 Pan-Pac, Octagonal	NGC	MS66	$207,000
1915-S $50 Pan-Pac, Round	NGC	MS66	$178,250

Certainly the tried and true electronic sight-unseen markets are still a quick and relatively painless way to generate cash or to make some much needed purchases in a flash. Classic Silver Commems are a well admired staple within the numismatic community and have perhaps finally sprung a little respect. As a matter of reference, one of the keys to the combine, the 1935 Spanish Trail, is making tracks for the PCGS hombres grading MS65-MS67 as the latter explores $2,600. Those easing back a bit are due to lower auction prices and/or lower dealer asking prices. Silver Dollars are another source of continued action, although in this edition, perhaps due to the sharp gyrations with Spot Silver, buyers are satisfied with their Bids where they are. Another indication that the market is solid is that there is definitely no jettisoning of material after the white metal's recent slide. Walkers are still traipsing into buyers' hearts as the key to the short-set, 1941S, delivers a $1,000 blind offer for MS66 designees, leading on a percentage basis, the popular 1944S secures a $350 Bid on the heels of as much as an 11% advance for NGC slabs. As almost always, Mint State Type reveals few bargains as buyers are scouring the countryside for examples at current levels. Franklin Halves are making some noise as Proof issues from 1950-53 are on the move in PR62-PR66. Gold Type is flirting with some modest action as increased demand is sending Type III $20 Libs a notch higher in MS61. Next up on the never ending smorgasbord for many hungry dealers and collectors this early spring is the Santa Clara Expo in California, April 10-13. Superior will host the Santa Clara Elite Coin Auction, April 10.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists, coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" – Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (week old); "m" – Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (month old); "t" – Trade during the most recent month; "lm" – Lowest asking price appearing last month; "lt" Trade appearing last month; "ot" Trade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" – auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

Silver Dollars Reverberate Demand
Buffs, Mercs & Walkers Added To Big Market

It is obvious that the numismatic world is not driven only by metal mania; there is much more here that keeps this rare coin market ticking. Certainly, the precious metals have had their impact, yet the ever-widening base of collectors that have turned into collector-investors is staggering. Many dealers have taken this new, affluent hobbyist type under their wing and have exposed them to the intricate workings of this big business. Most have liked what they have seen and are anxious to pour in substantial funds. Tangible assets are becoming increasingly attractive, in part due to the tepid returns on conventional investments. Right now there are unquestionably many individuals with millions of dollars on the immediate periphery who are just chomping at the bit, willing to spend whatever is necessary to secure those super rarities. Needless to say, many of the coins on the various hit lists have been carefully researched via population reports, pedigrees, comparable auction prices realized, historic CDN Bids, etc. Not only are the requirements for these rarities and wonder coins stringent, they must also make the grade, literally (oh yes, and be eye-appealing to boot). Dealers are undoubtedly excited for the opportunity to build some substantial portfolios and registry sets for their clients. However, the drawback is these are not the coins that often make an appearance on your average bourse, and if they do, a Bidding war ensues, making the specimen that much more difficult to acquire. The prime early federal treasures that all are jockeying for are truly rare, and as such, considerable time and effort must be allocated to capture them.

Now, we also have the average collector who is anxious to fill holes in his or her Type set. Quality is of course a concern, even though they are looking for lower grade material, like pleasant Circ examples. Still others are just entering the fray based on high prices for bullion. This has prompted the excavation of Grandpa's Silver Dollars and Double Eagles that have been sitting in an attic or resting in a safe deposit box having been passed down to heirs. Some are just interested in getting quick cash while others are taking a look at picking up the family collecting legacy. The balancing act continues as many dealers head west looking to make hay while the sun shines. With ever-expanding want lists in tow, dealers and collectors will be in good spirits for the upcoming Santa Clara Expo and Superior auction beginning April 10.

As always, the electronic trading networks are a quick fix, either to generate cash for a purchase that just walked through the door or to, gulp, pay the taxman. Classic Silver Commems are perhaps tired of being the only game in the bargain bin. This report we note that the popular and patriotic 1925 Lexington-Concord issue has been called to muster. Take a look as the Minuteman has come to arms in a solid fashion as double-digit advances rally MS65 PCGS participants claiming a 23% increase. In the lofty grade of MS66, NGC examples roll to $875 sight-unseen Bid, and those graded by PCGS top $900. Another 1925 entry, Stone Mountain is on the receiving end of a 12% hike for MS63 slabs of the NGC persuasion. In spite of Silver Spot's recent fine tuning, Silver Dollars are hotter than a pistol on a firing range. Morgans are feasting again on advances in Choice and better. Dealers just can't stock enough of them, as volumes of these gleaming cartwheels are wanted, pronto. Generics with a grade of MS63 top $38, MS64 bump up to $51, MS65 ride a five spot to $138, and MS66 reach $277. High-end Mercs are also getting some double-digit exposure as a half dozen late date issues grading NGC MS67FB are driving to $70. Many ANACS and ICG slabs are also getting onboard the express, flagging down similar action. Some other news that bodes well for FB Mercs, Type II Buffalos, and Walkers is that CCE is now including these in their competitive Generic Big Market. Enough of these coins have been slabbed to allow for trading large quantities, similar to the already included Double Eagles and Silver Dollars. Mint State Type and Proof Type are in a holding pattern as buyers hope to reel in some offerings at current levels and are not about to let any go. Gold Type is recovering from the April fools sucker punch that sent Gold Spot tumbling. However, minor downward adjustments are noted for most of the more bullion sensitive players. Overall, increasing sight-unseen Bids are a solid indication that this bull rare coin market is healthy this early April, no fooling.

Rare Coins Taxing Proposition
April Shows Shower Blooming Market

For the multitude of dealers having enjoyed another prosperous year, the first order of business for many is to take care of the taxman as the ides of April are closing in fast. Yet even the temporary interruption with acco untants can't derail the dynamics of this ever-expanding coin market and may actually be the harbinger of even more opportunity for business. Although the government taketh away, the same bureaucracy is also giving back in the form of the federal stimulus program this year. Of course these welcome refunds are already earmarked by many families. Considering the lukewarm financial alternatives, countless collectors we have talked to can't think of a better place to park some extra cash than into some quality certified rare coins. Especially now, as the slab coin arena is buzzing at a fever pitch, a goodly portion of hardworking, tax paying hobbyists are excited to upgrade or add to their holdings. Yes, the huge number of plus signs seen virtually each week on our Greysheet and Bluesheet pages as well as on our Quarterly and Monthly Supplement sheets each month is the coin market's own stimulus plan to keep veteran collectors and the new wave of potential buyers highly motivated.

The hunt is still on as buyers scour both known, as well as little traveled venues looking to snag eye appealing specimens. There is just no letup anymore. In previous years, prior to the extended bull run we have been enjoying, the spring into summer season usually marked a pronounced slowdown in numismatic circles, accentuated by the dreaded doldrums of late summer. Not anymore. As we go to press, many of the numismatic faithful have trekked to the west coast, hoping to strike Gold or perhaps at least Silver at the Santa Clara Expo. This affluent segment of the Golden State will hopefully translate into a prosperous beginning for the April road show. The action is expectedly going to be fast and furious as dealers attempt to fend off collectors and vice versa at each turn on the bourse and at Superior's Elite auction. Naturally, it is important to have enough cash or credit available to take advantage of any opportunity that may waft their way in California and Chicago at the Central States Numismatic Society meeting next week. The Bowers and Merena April 12 Chicago Rarities Sale will jump-start the activity, followed by PNG Day, and culminating with the CSNS show and Heritage Signature auction, April 16-19 in Rosemont, Illinois. Dealers will strive to increase their cash reserves by parting with some of their own premium quality coins. These are some of their better quality slabs submitted to CAC and returned with a seal of approval, making their top tier coins much more marketable. Jettisoning some dreck Type coins into the sight-unseen market stream will also help in this endeavor. Surprisingly, numerous generic coins have already accelerated to higher levels, so cash-strapped dealers are able to receive a good price for them as well.

The various trading networks are getting more of a workout these days. The oft maligned Classic Silver Commems are making more of a stand almost each installment it seems, as those trading below previous Bids are negligible. This time around, the popular 1925 Stone Mountain entry is once again taking a hike up the sight-unseen Bidding trail as those grading MS61-MS64 are sporting as much as an 18% elevation. Piping hot doesn't quite seem adequate when telling the tale of the Morgan madness that is in many ways driving this market. Once again, buyers are chasing down as many of these gleaming centuries old Silver Americana that can be conjured up. Commoners are on the rise across the grading spectrum as MS65s top $141 and lofty MS66 and MS67 designees claim $280 and $740 respectively. Prooflike Morgans are also taking quite a shine to buyers as MS63PLs roll up as much as 25% for 1901O examples topping a $75 blind Bid while dazzling MS65PLs reel in $180. As should be expected, both Mint State and Proof Type are not revealing any bargains as buyers look to pry examples from hiding at present levels. Buffalos, Full Banded Mercs and Walkers with or sans toning are receiving some sustained action as CCE's Big Generic Market for this apt trio settles in after its inaugural week. Perhaps not so coincidentally, the Big Generic dealer roster has expanded 3-fold since its inception November 1, 2007.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers and are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

Preserving your modern art

NCS introduces Modern Tier

Professional conservation from NCS reduces the ill effects of improper storage or exposure to environmental contaminants — substantially improving a coin's visual appeal. And now we've created Modern Tier, a service designed especially for modern coins.

Submit any uncertified coin struck from 1970 to present for $22.50. This one flat fee includes conservation from NCS expert technicians and NGC certification. Following conservation, your coins are transferred to NGC, where they are graded and encapsulated in the NGC holder, the ultimate protection for long-term preservation.*

Industry-leading conservation, certification and preservation starts at just $22.50 per coin.

* NGC does not grade coins with detrimental surface conditions. Coins not eligible for NGC grading will receive NCS details grading and encapsulation. Not genuine coins or coins with altered dates or mintmarks will be returned uncertified.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

P/L Dollars may be semi-reflective, with less reflectivity than the deep-mirror Prooflikes. Bids for P/L's are usually much lower than for DMPL's, but command some premium over non-P/L strikes.

Gold Type Blowing Higher In Chicago
Bowers & Merena Sale Snares Nearly $6 Million

Not at all unexpectedly within this blistering market, those dealers and collectors flocking to the Central States Numismatic Society meeting and auctions in Chicago were greeted with an unseasonably warm reception. As a matter of fact, many attendees were blown away by the buzzing bourse and heated pursuit of the ultra rarities during PNG day. It is also as obvious as the rattling of older slabs on the bourse that this market has substantial bite just waiting to sink its teeth into some premier certified offerings. Many of the definitive 20th century rarities and scarcities in high grade are commanding prices through the stratosphere as well. Just take a look at the tremendous sums hammered away for some contemporary classics within the auction highlights. Buffalo Nickels, Mercury Dimes and yes, the still-circulating Lincoln Cents and Washington Quarters are all feasting on five and six figure exposure. This market is so dynamic that anytime an American classic appears from literally any series, especially those at the top or near the top of the grading tower, a phenomenal price is almost assured as collectors and dealers attempt to best each other to capture the prize. What else is making heads spin in Chicago? One east coast specialist confided that early Copper in high grade is as hot as ever, and he has clients waiting patiently with more flapping want lists in the wings. Several major west coast dealers confirmed that Flowing, Bust and Capped Silver Type just can't be found to any degree and will pay premiums to latch onto some fresh slabs, even sight-unseen. Early Gold Type is still the target of many as a veritable troop of buyers canvass showcase to showcase hoping to score a few pieces of these historic bellwethers. Proof Gold Type of all denominations is also facing extreme pressure as major players attempt to track down buttery yellow Deep Cameos. PNG Dayers confirmed that any denomination of Gold Type grading MS65 and better was on the receiving end of higher prices and Bids. One well-known eastern dealer was ecstatic to track down and buy a PCGS MS66 1908 $5 Indian for $35,000. Through all of this hullabaloo, let's not lose sight that the numismatic express is running on several tracks, and all at nearly full throttle.

Auction bills and show expenses add up fast, and for some fortunate enough to have a fresh collection coming through the door, cash is a welcomed ally. The various trading networks are naturally a great choice as the unwanted and stale inventory can usually find a waiting buyer with no problem; even the less than exemplary specimens are selling well in this market. Classic Silver Commems, although not on the ropes this round, are a popular way to generate quick cash as the popularity of these low mintage Americana remains intact. The 1925 Stone Mountain echoes further demand as MS64s take as much as a double-digit climb. Silver Dollars are still swarming with action as buyers are lining up, sight-unseen, for both generic and rare dates. As Bids remain in check, one buyer has pushed the button for the inaugural San Francisco Morgan delivery as the 1878S slams ahead by 33% for PCGS MS67 examples now commanding $6,000. Buyers on the bourse were anxious to secure early Silver Type, and this reflected big time on the Mint State Type page as over two dozen PCGS Slabs reel in over 10% advances and a baker's dozen jumped 20% or more. Leading this assertive action are Draped Bust Heraldic Eagle Dollars in MS65 as PCGS specimens spike 50% to $150K. Trade Dollars in the same grade exchange over a 48% increase, and the always popular Liberty Seated No Motto Dollars, also in MS65, ride a $7K escalation to $25K. As advertised at the CSNS Show, Proof Gold Type is a hot ticket, and that is confirmed here as desperate buyers raise the ante for Type III $20 Libs in PR67 by a solid 27%, now charging to an impressive $160K. Certainly courtesy of the big Generic Market, Mercs are getting some glowing attention too, as 10 from the 1940s grading MS67 are on the hook for double-digit advances. Standing Liberty Quarters are also lighting up the supplement page. Nearly 2 dozen PCGS examples rise on the double digit express. Always popular dated Saint-Gaudens $20s get a bump as the perhaps underrated 1909 rides an impressive 36% Bid hike to $1,350 for MS62s. Bowers & Merena's auction, held on April 15, was a taxing proposition for some, as nearly $6 million was hammered home. Take a look at several of the highlights. As we go to press, the host auction by Heritage is a numismatic work in progress, and at the conclusion of the third session, nearly $4 million has been tallied. Still to come is the American Classic, Mickley-Hawn-Queller, NGC PR62 Class 1 Draped Bust 1804 Dollar with Pre-Bidding already at $2.75 million.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

CCDN — a weekly report on the Sight-Unseen certified market published by the Coin Dealer Newsletter (est. 1963)

Vol. XXIII No. 17 | April 25, 2008 | Single copy price $4.00

Early Silver Type Explodes Auctions Hammering Lots Higher

Immediate assessments of the Rosemont, CSNS show indicate unequivocal success. Timing, location and the thriving collector base from the heartland made for quite a memorable affair. Those we caught up with at the show were excited as that famous buzzing bourse, indicative of a bull market, was evident. This convention was a unanimous winner on both fronts, wholesale and retail. Only one problem loomed: that recurring nightmare—an acute lack of fresh certified material available. Every key show seems to have the same story line of more cash available than coins to buy. A few dealers reported that major buyers with literally millions to spend on high-end slabs couldn't come close to parting with their coffers. Some dealers fortunate enough to have what buyers wanted were simply having an awesome show. Clearly, this market has serious individual collectors trolling up and down aisles, not only kicking the tires, but actually plunking down hard cash, paying full retail.

Before our very eyes and wallets, the market for rare coins has accelerated, perhaps without the public at large being totally aware. Take the recently concluded CSNS feature auction by Heritage, which generated in excess of $8,700 per lot, this compared to the approximately $4,300 realized per lot at last year's CSNS feature auction in St. Louis. Even if the $3.7 million 1804 Draped Bust Class 1 Dollar had not sold at this year's auction, the average per lot total would still be an amazing $7,600.

All major auctions are seeing this escalation, courtesy of some enormous prices being hammered home for marquee attractions, driving up the per lot proceeds tremendously. Amazingly, with thousands of slabbed rarities and quality Type coins appearing week end week out, there is still a shortage and dire need for quality certified offerings.

With the Illinois show under its belt, the numismatic express is now temporarily waiting at the station, giving those well-traveled dealers, spent both physically and financially, a bit of a respite from the grueling road show junket. Regional shows will certainly whet dealers' and collectors' appetites over the next several weeks, such as the in-progress April 24-27 Dulles Coin and Currency Expo, in Chantilly, VA as well as the GSNA Convention, May 15-17, in Somerset, NJ. Although it seems quite distant, all eyes will then be focused on the next major event, the Long Beach Expo, May 29-31.

In the interim, as dealers' stockpiles of bread-and-butter coins dry up, the sight-unseen venue is becoming more appealing. The various electronic trading networks are a handy tool to generate quick cash for auction bills or to snag a few of those much needed generic offerings for inventory. As you can see from this week's market columns, Classic Silver Commems are still slipping a bit, yet the descent has been buffered over the last several weeks. Only the 1920 Maine Centennial is caught wearing a double-digit setback due to a sub-par auction performance. The popular and emblematic Lexington-Concord has come to arms in MS65 and MS66 as the latter finds PCGS examples topping $930 and NGC slabs counter with a $900 sight-unseen offer. Classic Gold players are also seeing support at current levels, though a heavily copper spotted 1903 McKinley Dollar was a turnoff at auction as NGC MS64s drift back to $1,150. With Gold at its lowest level since mid-January, it's no wonder Mint State Gold Type has softened. Morgan Dollars are still a concern for many buyers out in force attempting to reel in these majestic cartwheels. Peace Dollars make some noise as the tougher NGC MS65 1927 Philly strike races ahead by a decisive 40%, standing proudly on a $1,400 blind Bid. Proof Type takes a shine to Dollars too, as Liberty Seated With and Sans Motto are being chased in PR65 and better. Taking the lead are NGC PR67 specimens riding a 10% advance to $24K. However, an 1855 Liberty Seated Dime With Arrows, grading NGC PR67 Cameo and pedigreed to P. Kaufman, realized only $48,875 at auction, effectively lowering Bluesheet Bid in the process by nearly 22%. Interestingly, in the same sale, the virtually identical 1855 Dime, graded PR67 Cameo by NGC, with a Star designation, captured $74,750. Mint State Type, especially Draped, Capped and Liberty Seated, are hotter than midday in the desert. With supply lines just as dry, a well-known west coast buyer is combating this by flooding the field with enormous advances. Twenty are experiencing double-digit acceleration, led by the gigantic 56% rocket put under Twenty Cent Pieces, sending PCGS MS67s soaring to $25K. Proof Type Gold is also blazing hot. Just ask the those faithful who canvassed the CSNS bourse. Feeling the heat, Type III $20 Libs are on the move again as a blind offer reveals PR67 examples driving $20K to $180K. Keep in mind, these are sight-unseen cash offers for any example, including grossly overgraded and darkly toned drek. All that matters here is the label in the slab.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists, computer bulletin boards and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" – Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (week old); "m" – Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (month old); "t" – Trade during the most recent month; "lm" – Lowest asking price appearing last month; "lt" Trade appearing last month; "ot" Trade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" – auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit on a sight basis.

Rare Coins A Solid Medium Market Bears Interest At Current Levels

Notwithstanding the market adjustment for Spot metals, certified rare coins are still on the carefree path to even higher ground, seemingly oblivious to world events and other financial trigger points. In the current period of a weakening economy overall, the coin market may just get a significant boost. The stimulus plan is in full force, with checks in the mail that may very well end up in the hands of coin dealers. In addition, as the Federal Reserve lowered its benchmark rate a quarter point to 2% on April 30, resulting in the bank prime rate dropping to 5%, some calculating collectors and entrepreneurs are seriously considering the advantages of taking out loans to facilitate numismatic purchases. Rates haven't been this low since 2004, and with multiple businesses offering loan services on coin collateral, borrowing the cash needed to buy those key pieces becomes much easier. Others, dealers included, already holding a combination of bullion and certified numismatic coins, presumably having already appreciated a solid increase based on the present market value, can borrow or leverage against that profit.

Current demand is amazing. Even the less than stellar standouts from various series are on the receiving end of more sanguine attention and higher offers. The most obvious reason: there is still a pronounced and ever-widening shortage of better material. Parlay this with a horde of enthusiastic, prosperous collectors pounding on the door, and dealers are left scratching their heads. Enthusiasm, desirability and history are driving many of the influential and affluent newcomers to the front of the highly competitive coin conga line. This accelerating demand on the finite supply has been telling, as virtually week in and week out anxious Bidders are raising the action. Many excited new hobbyists entering the marketplace are easily upset when the immediate gratification of a specific numismatic purchase can't be fulfilled on the spot at major shows. Some of the brethren have quickly come to the realization that dealers are just coin mortals after all; they can't just snap their fingers and magically conjure up a fresh supply of certified rarities. Still others not satisfied with that answer have taken another course of action. As the present bull market thrives, many of the new breed of home schooled numismatic neophytes that are tired of waiting for numistopia have actually thrown their hats in the ring as vest pocket dealers. So what has already been a struggle for well-known dealers to make ends meet and keep want lists shorter than a typical bourse table, has become even more of a challenge. Many of these new dealers are setting up shop on the internet and can also be seen canvassing local and regional shows. Applications to conduct business on the various electronic trading networks are also picking up. So as traffic increases on the internet highway, new and established dealers are courting this effective outlet with more vigor. Whether it's buying or selling, action here, especially between major venues, is a life saver. You know trends are changing when the Classic Silver Commem corner is finding fewer sellers at bargain rates. This report, only a single certified offering wearing the PCGS brand is off a smidgen. The last of the state themed offerings, Iowa of 1946, declines a modest 5%. Some ANACS slabs are getting a little play, though, as several are thought to be undervalued. Leading the double-digit dash are the popular Stone Mountain and 1934 Texas entries. Classic Gold counterparts are stable where they are as dealers aren't at all anxious to part with any at a discount. As the precious metal tides shift a bit, we note that the Silver Dollar express may have eased on the throttle, yet buyers are still out in force looking to snare quantity at current sight-unseen levels. Excitement in the Proof Type sector is loud and clear as just about all Matte Proof Lincoln Cent color combos are flourishing. Over 2 dozen of these European flavored Proof strikings display double-digit advances. Leading the Lincoln log jam are NGC PR64RB examples rolling ahead by 40% to a $350 blind buy. The fascination with this coin is obvious. Therefore, dealers are building various themed offerings to coincide with the highly anticipated release of the 100th Anniversary Commemorative Lincoln issues less than a year away. Mint State Type is still a hot topic with buyers, as tough to find PCGS MS65 Draped Bust Small Eagle Dimes soar to a $75K sight-unseen offer on the strength of a phenomenal $20K escalation. Although sundry generic Gold Type is still going through a minor malaise as the yellow metal trades around $850, Proof Gold Type is hale and hardy as six-figures will be handed out blindly for the incorrigible Type III $20 Lib. NGC PR67s surge to $190K, and PCGS PR67s, with a current population of 1, take an incredible sight-unseen $40K wallop all the way to $220K.

How to Receive the Largest Check for Your Coins and Currency: Get Them to Dale Larsen at Spectrum!

S

We buy thousands of coins and notes every week, items with values from under $5 to over $1 million. Spectrum buys individual coins and notes, partial and complete collections, accumulations, hoards, rarities, Territorials, Colonials, Large and Small Notes, National Currency, even errors!

And unlike so many of our "competitors," who are only interested in your most valuable coins and/or notes, Spectrum buys it all, and pays top dollar!

Dale Larsen, Spectrum's Senior Buyer, has helped tens of thousands of coin and currency owners get top market prices for their collectibles. Whether you want to sell a single coin or note, or a lifetime accumulation, there are four main ways to deliver your coins and currency to Dale:

#1. Deliver Them by Mail. There is no safer way to deliver valuable coins or currency to Dale than Registered, Insured mail. (Did you know the Hope Diamond was delivered to the Smithsonian this way?) Using the United States Postal Service's Registered, Insured Mail option is preferred by the vast majority of men and women who sell to Spectrum. It's convenient and 100% safe. Call Dale toll-free today (888-828-2646) to learn how the USPS will safely and quickly deliver your valuables to Spectrum.

#2. Deliver Them to Our Offices in Person. What could be easier and faster than driving your valuables to our Irvine, California, offices and driving away a short time later with Spectrum's market-topping check? All we ask is that you arrange for an appointment with Dale, so he can give your coins and currency the attention they deserve. And provide the security you deserve.

#3. Deliver Them at a Show or Convention. Today's sellers often prefer to meet and discuss their collectibles with Dale at a secure coin show near their home. That's why Dale travels to dozens of the larger local, regional, and national coin shows and conventions every year. Dale recommends a toll-free phone call well before the convention to be sure he can schedule sufficient time to meet you, review your coins and currency, and make a top-dollar offer.

#4. Dale Visits You. No part of Dale's week is more enjoyable than a visit to a seller's home, office, or bank. He flies and drives thousands of miles every month to personally meet collectors, investors, dealers, attorneys, and heirs. More than 95% of these meetings conclude with Dale writing a sizeable check, then taking possession of the coins and/or currency. Naturally, meetings like this can only take place by appointment due to the security arrangements that must be made.

Meet Dale Larsen, Spectrum's Senior Buyer. Dale brings decades of experience as a collector and buyer to his job. Thousands of coin and currency owners have discovered how easy, enjoyable, and profitable it is to sell their coins and/or currency to Dale. When you're ready to sell, and you want a BIG check from a 100% reliable source, call Dale Larsen Toll-Free at 888-828-2646.

Whether you deliver your coins or banknotes to Dale by U.S. mail or in person, you'll be conducting business with today's market leader: Spectrum, the company known for fast, convenient, personal attention to you, and to your coins and notes.

Join the tens of thousands of sellers of coins and currency who have done business with Spectrum. Call, fax, or email Dale Larsen at Spectrum today to begin the process that will produce the highest possible prices for your numismatic valuables. Remember, Spectrum buys it all, and we pay more for your valuable coins and notes.

Blind Type Sees The Light May Auction Flotilla On Horizon

As this remarkable industry has gone through leaps and bounds of changes, so has the Type market. What used to be a simple choice has become a complex and costly equation for many. The average collector may choose a pleasing certified MS65RB Indian Head Cent from the 1900s as their Type representative. The new affluent enthusiast may have a far different idea. Today, these serious collectors prefer to purchase key dates such as an MS65RB 1877 Indian Cent as their Type companion and centerpiece. Thus the image and category known as "Type" is becoming nearly as subjective as grading standards. Obviously it's much easier for a collector to assemble a traditional MS63 20th century Type set. It's quite a different story for the well-heeled suitor intent on securing an MS64 or better late 18th or early 19th century monster Type set. The true rarity for select early examples is primarily why we find the spreads between sight-seen and sight-unseen tightening for many high powered Type coins such as the popular Draped Bust Small Eagle Dimes. Their MS64 and MS65 population is so minuscule that most well-traveled veteran dealers have probably (sight) seen most of them anyway. This accounts for the 15% differential for sight-unseen MS64s and only 7% for MS65s when compared to their sight-seen contemporaries. However, a look at the average Bid chart for a sampling of Mint State and Proof Type coins within will reveal, that for the majority, spreads between the sight-unseen and seen Bids have widened by as much as a thundering 96%. Accordingly, those coins that exude eye appeal and a full strike are scarfed up immediately on the bourse or usually change hands at auction with record setting figures.

The opportunity to acquire some quality material will take its May road show to Texas, where the TNA is hosting their 50th Texas State Coin & Currency Show in Fort Worth, May 16-18. Then it's on to New York City for Stack's Minot collection auction, May 21-22. Activities for the month culminate in the Golden State for a flotilla of auctions: the Superior and Goldberg Pre-Long Beach sales, beginning May 25, are followed by the Heritage Signature sale held during the Long Beach Expo, kicking off May 27. Dealers will have a chance to preview lots for this auction at the TNA show in the Lone Star State.

Classic Silver Commems aren't showboating with glee as the 1948 Booker T. Washington PDS Sets grading MS64 climb to a $105 blind Bid, combating 2 entries surrendering marginal ground. The Classic Gold consortium is on the quiet side with buyers keeping the 11-piece ensemble and the pair of Pan-Pac slugs stable. With the metals still staggering a trifle, Silver Dollars are not whooping it up. Under current conditions, Morgans are dropping a wee bit in MS63 and MS65 to $37 and $138, respectively. The highly popular Carson City delivery from 1881 does muster some momentum as MS64s escalate to a sight-unseen offer of $440. Mint State Type is not relinquishing any bargains, as a bevy of buyers stand by watching carefully. Proof Type is the dynamo this report though, as over 3 dozen PCGS slabs are mirroring deep demand with buyers. Many sight-unseen Bids are now higher than recent retail auction prices realized. With nearly half of the group scoring double-digit increases, Liberty Seated Dimes with Legend grading PR63, and bigger brother PR64 Liberty Seated Quarters with Motto, reel in 70% and 63% respectively. Gold Type isn't in total despair, though many of the generics are drifting back. Once again we are left scratching our heads as a number of coins sold at the May 6th Legend retail auction for well below existing sight-unseen Bids. A couple examples include an 1835 Capped Bust Half Dollar graded AU58 by PCGS, with a CAC sticker, selling for $575 versus a sight-unseen Bid of $650 and a CAC approved 1861 NGC AU58 $10 Liberty, No Motto went for 14% below sight-unseen Bid. Money was also left on the table for several Mint State Gold Type coins with some selling for just over melt. Proof Gold Type is sunny though, as the king (or is it queen?) of Proof Gold, $4 Stellas, roll ahead in multiple columns reflecting gains of as much as $5K. Early Gold maintains a powerful stance as Draped Bust Small Eagle Fives top dual-digits in MS62. The proud and rare MS65 Capped Bust Quarter Eagles are looking for a new roost as the current PCGS/NGC brood of 5 have a waiting home at $250K. Buffs, Mercs and Walkers show only a trickle of negativity resulting in a handful easing back a tad. Proof Singles tell the tale of an especially mottled NGC PR67 1942 Mercury Dime retreating over 20% after auction intervention, effectively lowering Bid to $355. Matte Proof Lincoln Cents continue to blaze ahead as virtually all collectible issues are on Bidders' active agenda.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN albeit, on a sight basis.

A LITTLE STICKER MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE.

Actually, it's smaller than a coffee bean. But the impact it's having on the coin market is significant. Coins bearing the CAC sticker are bringing notable premiums at auction. Not surprising, since CAC coins are considered, at minimum, 'solid' for the grade. In just a few months, CAC has authenticated 15,000 coins with an estimated value of $100 million.

That's what happens when you bring an idea whose time has come to market. Only coins that meet our strict standard earn the CAC sticker. We believe so strongly in the value of CAC quality coins that we have capital commitments upward of $25 million for the sole purpose of making markets in our product. The numismatic market needs standards everyone can trust. And every coin that earns the CAC sticker helps the industry regain the integrity it deserves.

Preserving your modern art

NCS introduces Modern Tier

Professional conservation from NCS reduces the ill effects of improper storage or exposure to environmental contaminants — substantially improving a coin's visual appeal. And now we've created Modern Tier, a service designed especially for modern coins.

Submit any uncertified coin struck from 1970 to present for $22.50. This one flat fee includes conservation from NCS expert technicians and NGC certification. Following conservation, your coins are transferred to NGC, where they are graded and encapsulated in the NGC holder, the ultimate protection for long-term preservation.*

Industry-leading conservation, certification and preservation starts at just $22.50 per coin.

* NGC does not grade coins with detrimental surface conditions. Coins not eligible for NGC grading will receive NCS details grading and encapsulation. Not genuine coins or coins with altered dates or mintmarks will be returned uncertified.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

Early Copper Red Hot Market Metamorphosis Motivates

As the bull continues to graze, this truly amazing market seems to be sprouting a newer and more confident legion of enthusiasts. Amazingly, what took centuries to develop and cultivate as a hobby and passion of the kings has undergone a true metamorphosis, transforming the numismatic landscape over the last two decades. Now, seemingly predicated on the strength and acceptance of the third-party grading component, this raging activity, especially within the sight-unseen market, is nothing short of a phenomenon. Virtually every major rarity is accounted for in plastic and backed up by population reports, and the acceptance is universal. Further enhancements, courtesy of the advent of the CAC seal of grade approval, has eased the eyes of many a professional and novice in their quest for the cream of the coin crop. Again, change in this industry is not always accepted immediately, yet now, less than a year on the market, CAC stickered product has been embraced by many. For example, multiple dealers are currently waiting in line to buy generic CAC $20 Saint-Gaudens in MS65-MS66. Sight-unseen Bids for these Double Eagles are higher, by as much as 31% over non-stickered slabs.

The other major innovation to come along recently has been the use of the internet to facilitate sales. In their infancy, these sales may have been more of a curiosity as well as the dumping grounds for slabbed dreck; that stigma has been absolved too. Technology has improved the ability to view coins with near show quality realism, allowing buyers to make a more accurate assessment for buying online. The popularity of the internet has also spawned a cavalcade of "online only" sales which is also filling the void handsomely, especially when a major show is not on the docket. Although not physically sight-seen, these auctions are great for dealers anxious to pick up some coins for lean inventories or for those collectors outside of the metropolitan areas wanting to remain involved with the hobby. Tremendous action is escalating in this market. A quick scan of our records for one major numismatic firm reveals that a series of biweekly internet only auctions from April 1 through May 13 in 2007 realized nearly $1.7 million. Compare that to the $2.7 million generated during the same time period and identical number of auctions this year, resulting in a 63% increase.

Demand for certified coins is at a fever pitch. It's not only the rarities that are driving prices through the rafters. Common Type in extraordinary condition is ablaze as well. Wherever it can be found, it seems a more than willing buyer is ready to dole out a premium offer. As many buyers are planning their western junket in earnest, we find that the various electronic trading networks are quite active. Within Silver Commems, the historic Lexington-Concord entry is sending the sentry to higher ground in MS65 and MS66 as the latter reels in $950 for PCGS examples. The Booker T. Washington PDS Sets of 1948 are on the move again as PCGS representatives climb in a pair of Mint State grades. Once more, the Classic Gold carousel is not finding any bargain rides as sight-unseen Bids stay put. As Silver Spot attempts to settle, only a few of the generic Morgan crowd have been spotted selling at auction for a trifle under sight-unseen Bids. Be sure to note that the popular final San Francisco installment to the Morgan clan, the 1921, is speeding ahead in MS65 as a 26% push plows both services to $600. Mint State Type is under a Copper blitz as dealers raise the action on nearly every PCGS Half Cent and Large Cent design and color combo. Forty are scoring solid double-digit advances. A pair of enormously tough to find Liberty Cap Large Cents in MS64BR and RB have seen their sight-unseen Bids double, all the way to $25K and $30K. Liberty Cap Large Cents graded MS66RB charge ahead by $20K to capture a $65K blind Bid. Buffs, Mercs, Walkers and Franklins are sitting this one out for the most part as a modest reversal is observed sending several a bit lower. Gold Type is still oscillating as buyers attempt to get a handle on the Spot market. Understandably, most generic Gold Type is caught drifting a bit lower again as weekly Asks and auction malaise run its course. As dealers and hard-core collectors strategize, the Long Beach Expo extravaganza is only two weeks away, with dealer set-up day Wednesday, May 28. We have included a few of the many flagship auction highlights by Heritage to whet your appetites.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.
